The Dei Fratelli Brand

As with the other products available in the Dei Fratelli line, the company's pasta sauce and salsa products are manufactured by the Hirzel Canning Company and Farms. Located in Toledo, Ohio, the company was founded in 1923 and is owned and operated by the fourth generation of the founding family. In addition to salsa and pasta sauce, the company also produces canned tomatoes, other tomato products, and sauerkraut.

"These products allow retailers the opportunity to offer consumers robust, flavorful convenience – chock full of simple and delicious ingredients they know. No water, no preservatives ... just vegetables, sea salt and spices make these products great," offers Steve Hirzel, President, Hirzel Canning Company & Farms. "We are continuing our mission to grow in the canned tomato product category by listening to our consumers' needs and using innovation to meet those needs."
