Dei Fratelli

I am trying more and more to find foods that are more natural. So many foods found in the grocery stores are loaded with chemicals that our body does not need. I was thrilled when I looked on the Dei Fratelli (Fire Roasted) Pasta sauce jar and saw these ingredients: Crushed Tomatoes, Diced Tomatoes, Fire Roasted Zucchini, Fire Roasted Onions, Sugar, Extra Virgin Olive Oil, Fire Roasted Yellow Bell Peppers, Fire Roasted Red Bell Peppers, Carrots, Sea Salt, Basil, Citric Acid, Oregano, Spices. I could read and understand every ingredient! I used the jar in my spaghetti. The taste was phenomenal, and I can say it was some of the best spaghetti that I have ever had! Plus, Dei Fratelli's Fire Roasted Pasta sauce had only 60 calories and had 2 grams of fiber! These are things I keep count of with Weight Watchers. I highly recommend Dei Fratelli pasta sauce. The ingredients are natural, sauce is great tasting, and it's good for you! Dei Fratelli's products are so flavorful! Their website offers several great recipes to try!

Dei Fratelli has a great selection of salsas. The salsas are made with all natural ingredients, too! The black bean and corn salsa has these ingredients: Tomatoes, Roasted Corn, Black Beans, Peppers, Roasted Tomatoes, Vinegar, Sea Salt, Spices, Cilantro, Garlic, Natural Flavor Citric Acid. Such a great blend of good, wholesome ingredients! I think what I like best about Dei Fratelli products is, that I can be confident that I am putting good things into my mouth, and not anything that could possibly be dangerous for me or my health! Along with the pasta sauces and salsas, Dei Fratelli also has Tomatoes, Juices, Sauerkraut, and low sodium/no salt added products. Dei Fratelli is a fourth generation, family-owned company. Their tomato products are grown from seedlings that they cultivate themselves. I have looked for Dei Fratelli's great products in the stores, and I haven't seen them sold there yet. I do know that they can be purchased online here. Dei Fratelli makes great, whole-some products for your family, from theirs. You can feel confident in their products, because you can read the ingredients, and feel good about serving them to your children.
