Category Leader Celebrates More Than Seven Decades of Success

Gorman-Rupp launches a celebration campaign in honor of 75 years

The Gorman-Rupp Company announces the celebration of its 75th anniversary. In honor of 75 years of successful pump and pumping system manufacturing, the company will launch a campaign to celebrate over seven decades of superior service to the construction, industrial, municipal, fire, petroleum, OEM and government segments.

The campaign will be targeted towards Gorman-Rupp distributors, customers and employees alike. In order to celebrate a sense of pride and commitment to the Gorman-Rupp Company and philosophy, a myriad of contests, activities and prizes are being made available to the public on www.ThinkGormanRupp.com and www.GRPumps.com. As a main feature of the campaign, visitors of the site will be able to view special Gorman-Rupp movies, a video featuring Gorman-Rupp CEO and President, Jeff Gorman and multiple case studies of real life experiences involving Gorman-Rupp pumps. Visitors will also have access to various downloads including Gorman-Rupp wallpapers, for both computers and cell phones, and ring tones.

The Gorman-Rupp Company was founded in 1933 by James C. Gorman and Herbert E. Rupp as a pump manufacturer. The company was established upon a mission statement that dictated it would "enter a field of pumping service only when able to provide superior products with better performance." Beginning with a handshake, now 75 years later, that company today stands as a leader in the pump manufacturing field. The Gorman-Rupp Company spans over one million square feet of manufacturing and warehousing in the U.S., Canada and Europe, manufacturing over 3,000 models of pumps.

"We are very proud of the successful model that Gorman-Rupp has become for the industry," said Jeff Gorman, CEO and President of The Gorman-Rupp Company. "There really is no limit to what dedicated men and women can accomplish when they put their heads – and their hands – together."

The Gorman-Rupp Company is a leading manufacturer of pumps and pumping systems for the municipal, water, wastewater, sewage, industrial, construction, petroleum, fire and original equipment manufacturing markets. Established in 1933, The Gorman-Rupp Company provides a quality, competitively priced product backed by superior customer service. The Gorman-Rupp Company is a pioneer in its field, boasting a history of innovation, continuous improvement and excellence that sets the industry standard.
